WHEREAS, the Taytay Municipal Library was first constructed at the Old Municipal Building in the year 1958 thru Resolution No. 8 series of 1958 and has had several previous relocations from the Old Municipal Building to its current location inside the Provincial Library;

WHEREAS, the current status of our municipal library is “inactive” based on the pronouncement from the National Library, conversely, the Local Government Unit of Taytay being mandated to have a functional library based on Republic Act No. 7743 shall pursue to relocate and re-activate its own municipal library;

WHEREAS, the required full seating capacity of a public library, as prescribed by the National Library, is at fifty (50) persons and a one hundred fifty (150) square meter allocation of the 3rd floor of the New Taytay Public Market may be an appropriate choice for the relocation of the Municipal Library;

WHEREAS, having a stand alone Municipal Library at a more accessible area for the general public will bring learning closer to Taytayenos as learning resource centers have been evolving to cater to the changing times and expansion of the information age;
